

About Us:

We are a growing online marketing company – over 80% growth last year and projected 100%+ growth in 2010. This is a fantastic company to spread your wings – interns are routinely promoted to account analysts if they work hard and are enthusiastic about the opportunities.

Once a part of the company, there is potential to take charge of business development projects, expand to other departments or products and to manage a team. Our core values are teamwork, efficiency, transparency and personal growth. We live to make a major impact to our clients' business by utilizing search engine advertising & optimization, landing page design and social media – and we are always looking to expand into the newest relevant channels. We work hard, but have a lot of fun!

We are seeking a Social Media Marketing Intern. Tasks include:

- Helping to build Twitter followship, strategic Tweeting, Facebook maintenance, blog posting, YouTube page management, and all other tasks related to marketing through social media.
- Ability to set and meet deadlines, proactively identify problems/improvement for clients, juggle multiple projects and be enthusiastic about social media and learning.
- Disciplined attention to detail as well as the ability to follow a broad marketing strategy.
- Ideal candidate is excited by marketing, social media, creative advertising, writing and communication.

The goal is to eventually become part of the Social Media Marketing team as an Account Analyst.

Required Skills/Experience:

Knowledge in Twitter, Facebook and blogging

Demonstrated excellence in school and/or career

Love and need to be constantly connected to others through social media

Strong writing ability

Organizational and self-management skills

Proficiency in Twitter, Facebook and blogging a plus

Search engine marketing experience a plus

Marketing background a plus

Compensation: Unpaid Internship

Please submit a resume and cover letter to careers@webmarketing123.com.